DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On May 2, 2016, Joseph Moran ("Petitioner") filed a petition for compensation pursuant to the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program.² Petitioner alleged that he suffered from rheumatoid arthritis as a result of the influenza vaccination he received on October 17, 2013. An entitlement hearing was held virtually on August 18, 2020, and on October 26, 2020. On October 4, 2021, the undersigned issued her Decision on entitlement, finding that Petitioner had not preponderantly demonstrated that the flu vaccine can cause RA or that it did so in this case and dismissing the petition.

On November 10, 2021, Petitioner filed an application for final attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF No. 84) ("Fees App."). Petitioner requests total attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $87,457.11, representing $58,047.00 in attorneys' fees and $29,410.11 in attorneys' costs. Fees

¹ The undersigned intends to post this Ruling on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website. This means the Ruling will be available to anyone with access to the Internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access. Because this unpublished ruling contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, the undersigned is required to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services).

App. at 1. Pursuant to General Order No. 9, Petitioner states that he has not incurred any costs related to this litigation. Id. Respondent filed a response on November 24, indicating that “Respondent is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys’ fees and costs are met in this case.” Response at 2. (ECF No. 47). Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter.

This matter is now ripe for consideration.

I. Reasonable Attorneys’ Fees and Costs

Section 15(e) (1) of the Vaccine Act allows for the Special Master to award “reasonable attorneys’ fees, and other costs.” § 300aa–15(e)(1)(A)–(B). Petitioners are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs if they are entitled to compensation under the Vaccine Act, or, even if they are unsuccessful, they are eligible so long as the Special Master finds that the petition was filed in good faith and with a reasonable basis. Avera v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., 515 F.3d 1343, 1352 (Fed. Cir. 2008). Here, the undersigned has reviewed the record and finds that the claim was filed in good faith and had a reasonable basis to proceed as it did. Respondent also has not challenged the good faith or reasonable basis of the claim. Accordingly, Petitioner is entitled to a final award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.

It is “well within the special master’s discretion” to determine the reasonableness of fees. Saxton v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., 3 F.3d 1517, 1521–22 (Fed. Cir. 1993); see also Hines v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., 22 Cl. Ct. 750, 753 (1991). (“[T]he reviewing court must grant the special master wide latitude in determining the reasonableness of both attorneys’ fees and costs.”). Applications for attorneys’ fees must include contemporaneous and specific billing records that indicate the work performed and the number of hours spent on said work. See Savin v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., 85 Fed. Cl. 313, 316–18 (2008).

Reasonable hourly rates are determined by looking at the “prevailing market rate” in the relevant community. See Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 895 (1984). The “prevailing market rate” is akin to the rate “in the community for similar services by lawyers of reasonably comparable skill, experience and reputation.” Id. at 895, n.11. The petitioner bears the burden of providing adequate evidence to prove that the requested hourly rate is reasonable. Id.

a. Reasonable Hourly Rates

Petitioner requests compensation for his counsel at the following rates: for Mr. Andrew Downing, $385.00 per hour for work performed in 2018-2021; and for Ms. Courtney Van Cott, $205.00 per hour for work performed in 2018 and 2019, and $275.00 per hour for work performed in 2020 and 2021. These rates are consistent with what Mr. Downing and Ms. Van Cott have previously been awarded for their Vaccine Program work, and I find them to be reasonable for the instant case.

b. Reasonable Hours Expended

Attorneys’ fees are awarded for the “number of hours reasonably expended on the litigation.” Avera, 515 F.3d at 1348. Counsel should not include in their fee requests hours that are “excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary.” Saxton, 3 F.3d at 1521 (quoting Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 434 (1983)). Additionally, it is well-established that billing for administrative/clerical tasks is not permitted in the Vaccine Program. Rochester v. United States, 18 Cl. Ct. 379, 387 (1989); Arranga v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., No. 02-1616V, 2018 WL 2224959, at *3 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Apr. 12, 2018).

The overall hours spent on this matter appear to be largely reasonable. The undersigned has reviewed the billing entries and finds that they adequately describe the work done on the case and the amount of time spent on that work. However, a reduction is necessary due to paralegal billing entries which describe either administrative tasks (such as filing documents and handling invoices for medical records) or duplicative work in reviewing routine filings by Respondent and the Court which an attorney had also billed to review. Upon review, an appropriate reduction is $1,000.00 in order to achieve “rough justice.” See Fox v. Vice, 563 U.S. 826, 838 (2011). Accordingly, Petitioner is awarded final attorneys’ fees in the amount of $57,047.00.

c. Attorneys’ Costs

Like attorneys’ fees, a request for reimbursement of attorneys’ costs must be reasonable. Perreira v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., 27 Fed. Cl. 29, 34 (Fed. Cl. 1992). Petitioner requests a total of $29,410.11 in attorneys’ costs, comprised of postage, work performed by Petitioner’s medical expert, Dr. Thomas Zizic, and transcripts of the hearing. The undersigned finds these costs to be reasonable and supported with adequate documentation, and they shall be fully reimbursed.

II. Conclusion

In accordance with the Vaccine Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e) (2012), the undersigned has reviewed the billing records and costs in this case and finds that Petitioner’s request for fees and costs, other than the reductions delineated above, is reasonable. The undersigned finds that it is reasonable to compensate Petitioner and his counsel as follows:

Attorneys’ Fees Requested	$58,047.00
(Reduction to Fees)	- ($1,000.00)
Total Attorneys’ Fees Awarded	$57,047.00
Attorneys’ Costs Requested	$29,410.11
(Reduction to Costs)	-
Total Attorneys’ Costs Awarded	$29,410.11
Total Amount Awarded	$86,457.11

Accordingly, the undersigned awards a lump sum in the amount of $86,457.11, representing reimbursement for reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, in the form of a check payable jointly to Petitioner and Petitioner’s counsel of record, Mr. Andrew Downing.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
